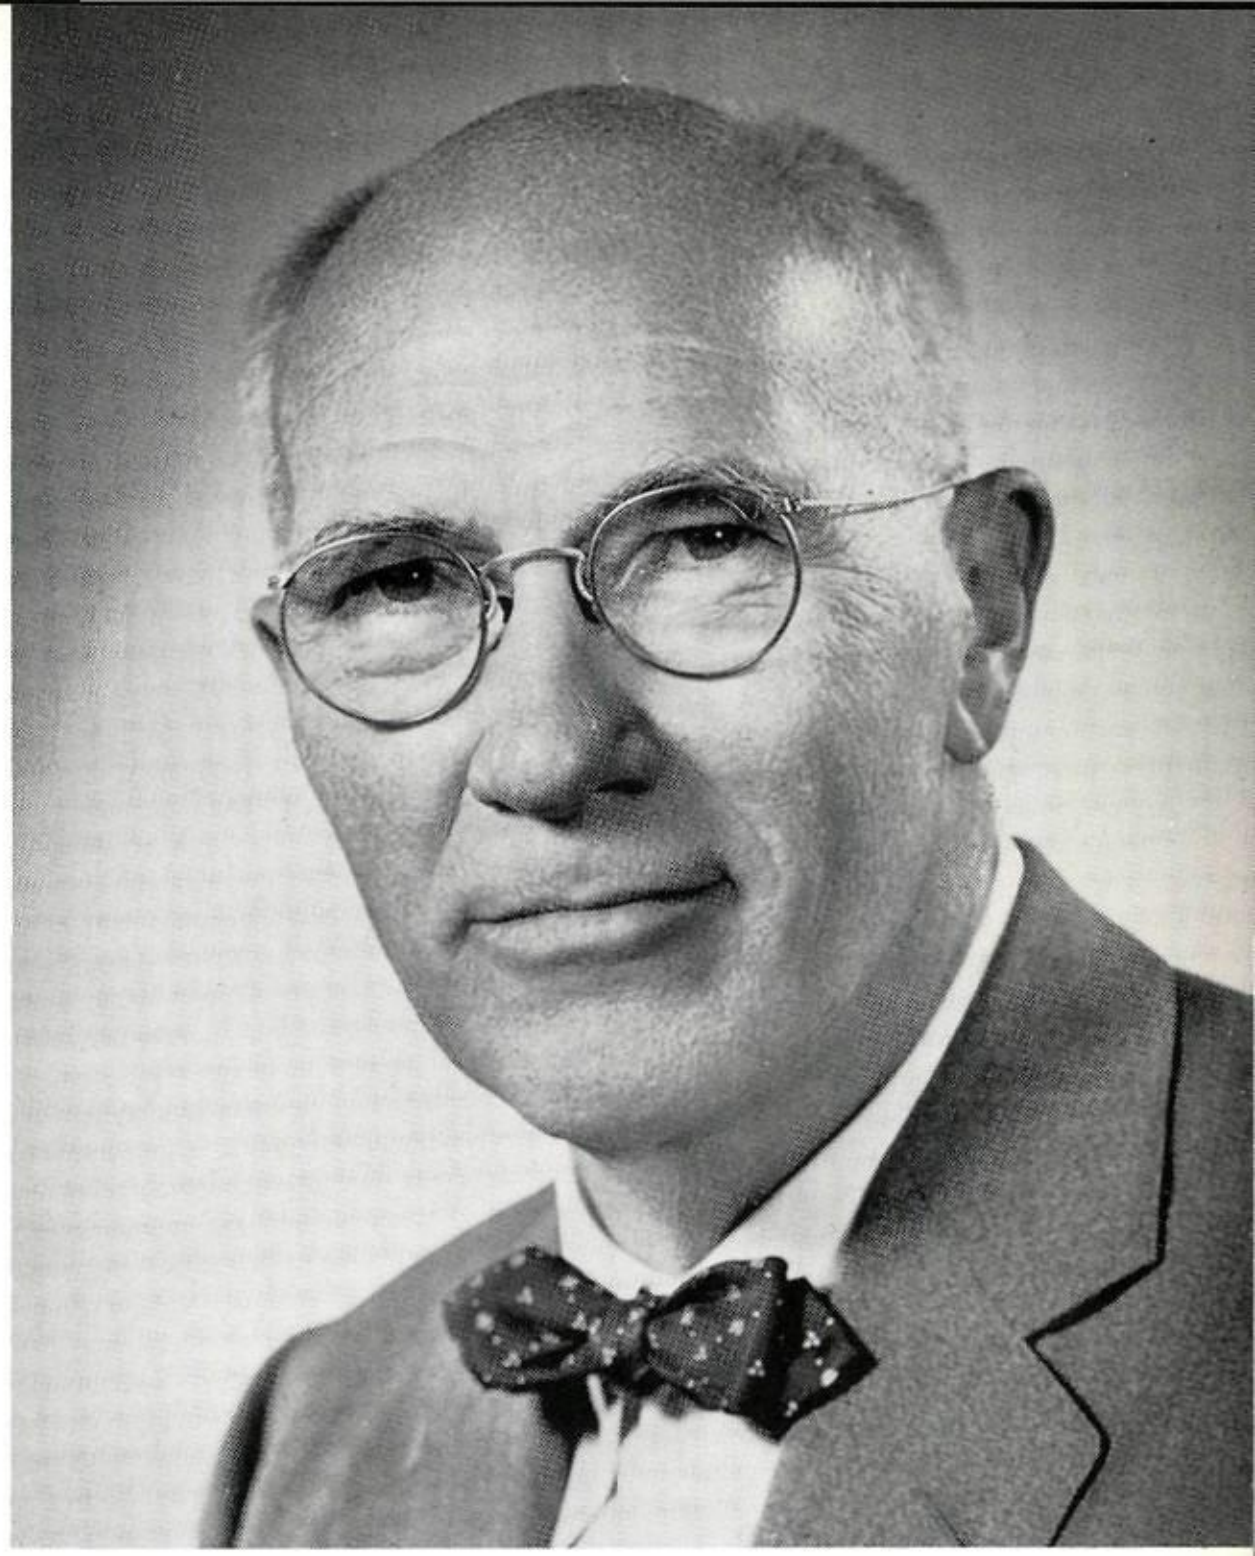
Dedication



There is a man whose heart is as big as Texas. This man's influence has been felt continually although he has been forced to divide his time between Dallas and Boston. His New England background and captivating charm have been refreshing as well as inspiring. We will always remember him for the stimulating five-minute conversations. We shall never forget the provocative seminars in his office and in the Cottage—seminars which imparted more than a mere familiarity with Greek literature. This could have been the man of whom Cicero said "(he) can treat humble subjects with delicacy, lofty things impressively, and moderate things temperately." To this man, Herbert W. Smith, who has taught us how rewarding life can be in the search for knowledge, and whose genuine interest in every girl has made this year a truly memorable one for each of us, the Class of 1957 is privileged to dedicate its Annual.

In Memoriam

PATRICIA LANCASTER

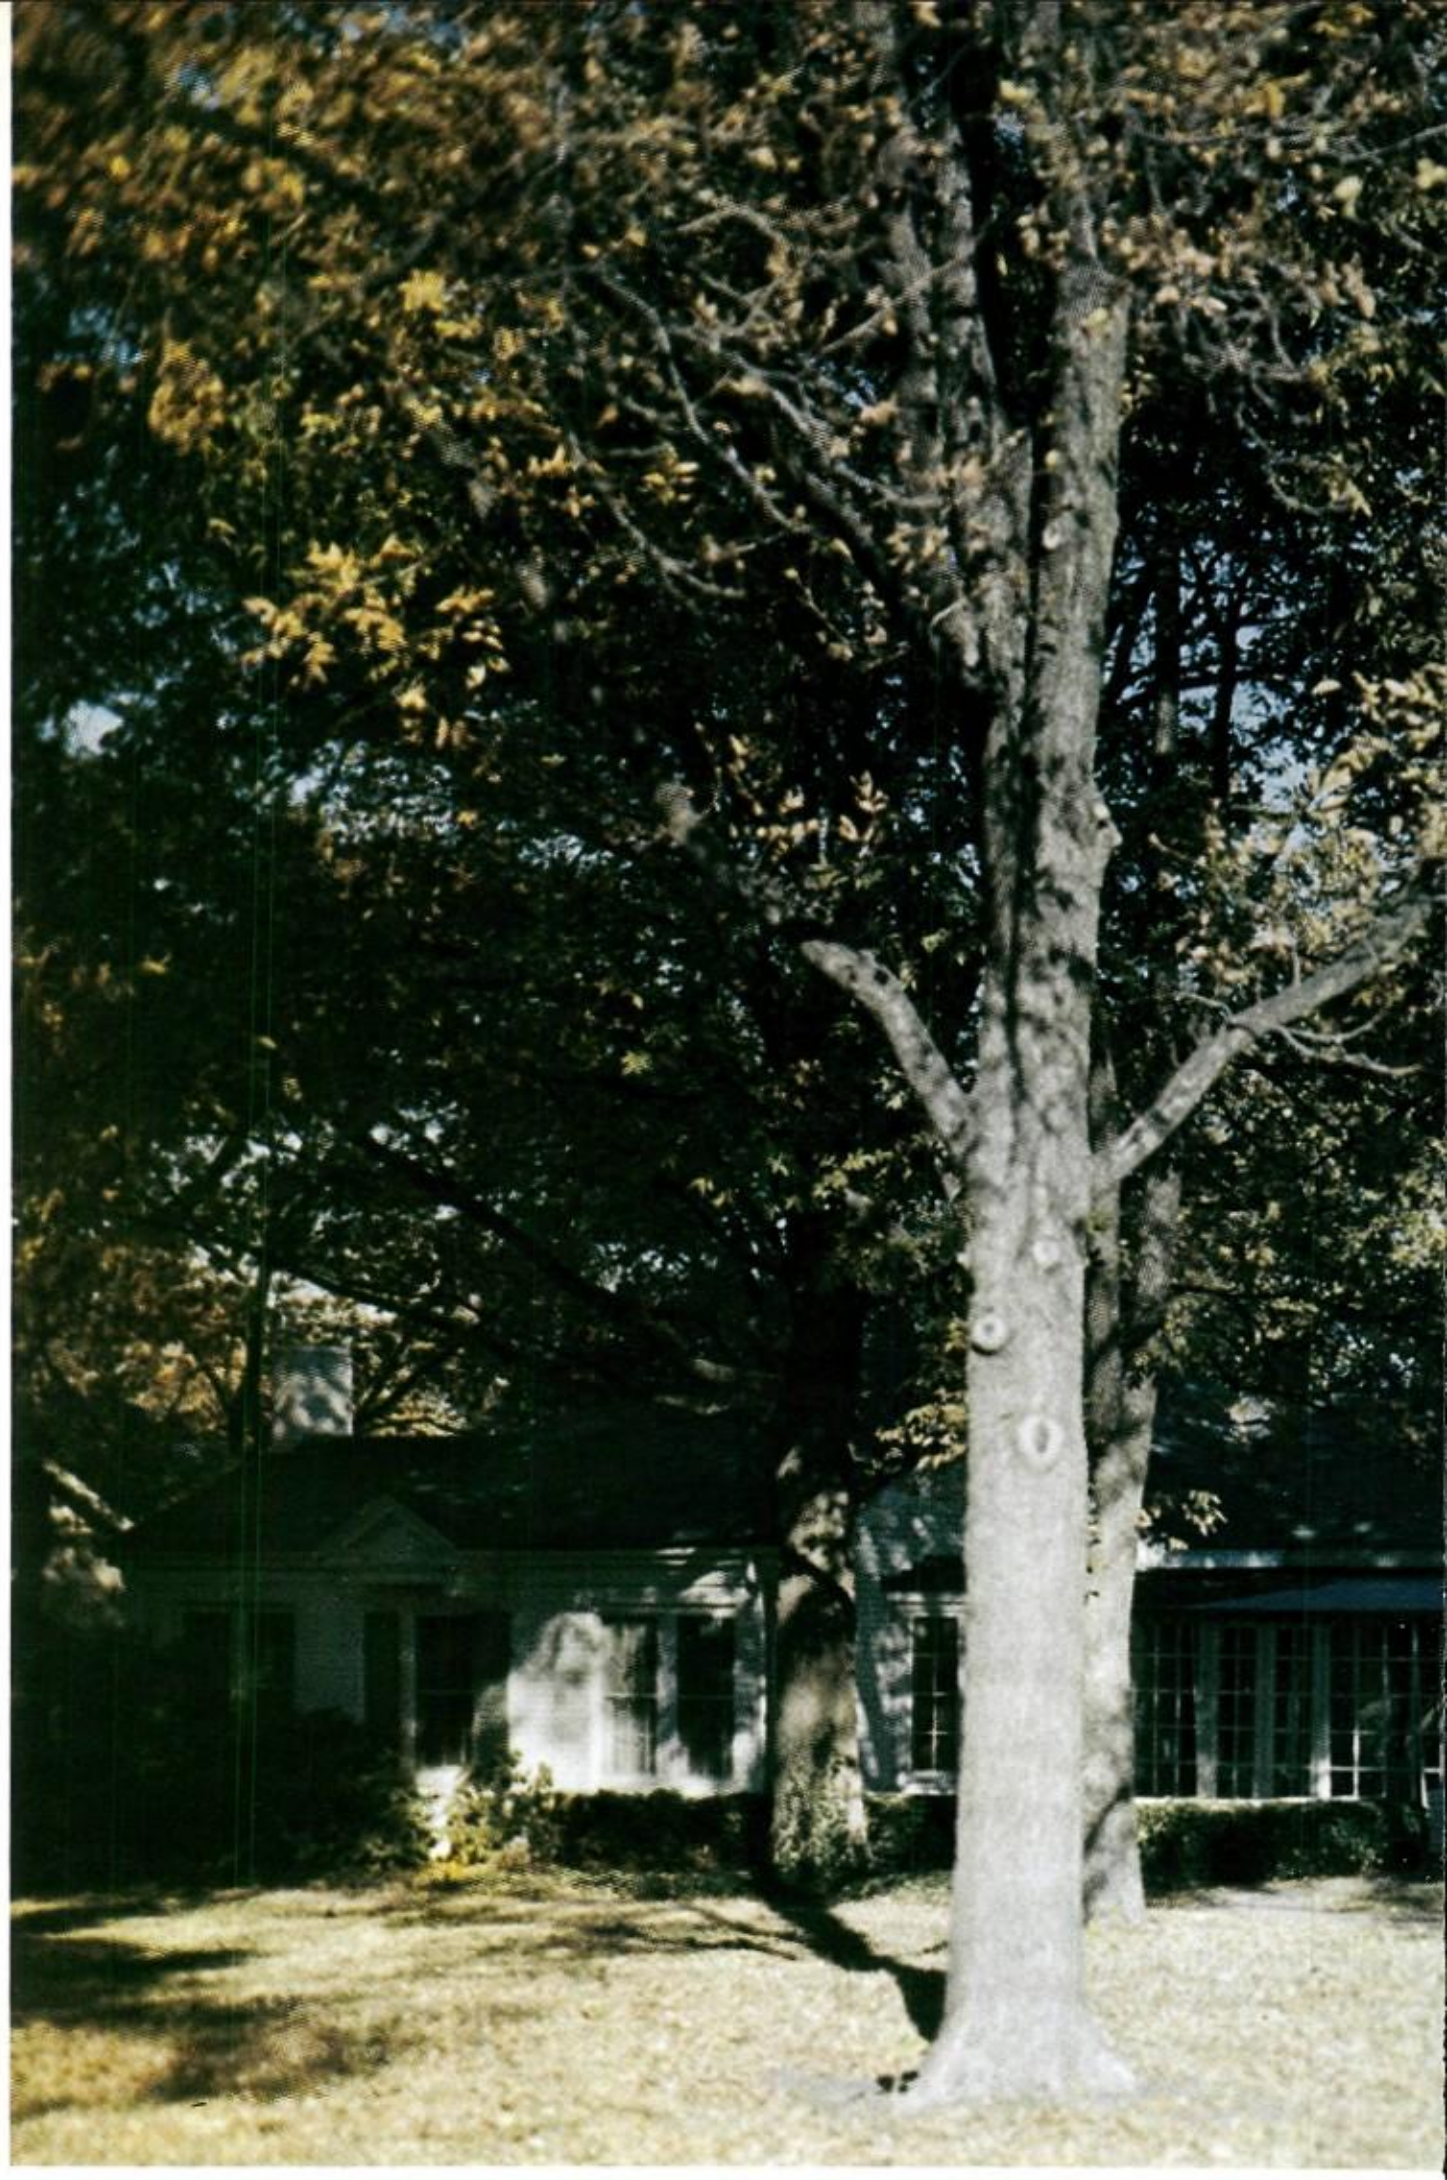
Patricia Lancaster, who passed away in her First Form year, was a member of the Class of 1957. It is with fond memories that we dedicate this page to her.

. . . But yet I treasure in my memory
Your gift of charity, and young heart's ease,
And the dear honour of your amity;
For these once mine, my life is rich with these.

GEORGE SANTAYANA

The Cottage

1927 1957



For many years the home of our Founder, Miss Ela Hockaday, THE COTTAGE continues to radiate charm and hospitality.

To a real cute girl. Stay as cute as you are and you'll be a great success. Good luck and best wishes. Love "ya" Donna (Pinkney) (5th-5th/6th-A)

HERBERT W. SMITH
Acting Headmaster

You have made me too much a part of Form IV for me to dismiss you in official and conventional terms. With humor and patience you have interpreted the Southwest and The Hockaday School to its new part-time, acting Headmaster from the North.

If the year, as this book suggests, has held some of the delight of "My Fair Lady," the roles have often been reversed: I have learned more from you than how to pronounce 'pecan' or wear a Texas hat. You have honored me with your trust, and have not disappointed mine.

The whole school has benefited from your willingness to assume wide responsibility, and to use power firmly but without arrogance. You have been candid in facing your own shortcomings and generous about each others'. In addition, your abounding energy has kept the academic record of the Class high, its intellectual curiosity insatiable, its leadership in public —in the Christmas Vespers, for example, or the Carnival—well up to Hockaday's traditionally high standards;—and enough surplus has remained for a healthy amount of spontaneous nonsense.

I wish Miss Hockaday could have known you, for you have done much to make her school what her English friend, Rebecca West, says a community should ideally be—"a shelter where all talents are generously recognized, all forgivable oddities forgiven, all viciousness quietly frustrated, and those who lack talent honored for equivalent contributions of graciousness."

So it is with gratitude, respect, and affection that your Headmaster bids farewell and godspeed to the Graduating Class of 1957 as students, and welcomes you to the goodly fellowship of Hockaday Alumnae.

Fourth Form

The Fourth Form girls have had a full schedule during their last year at Hockaday. The Senior trip was the first event on the agenda, followed by the Christmas formal on December fifteenth. The class presented "The Torchbearers," a comedy by George Kelly, in January. The spring brought a round of graduation parties, and, of course, the traditional Prom on April twenty-seventh. The class projects of the year were having charge of Chapel and publishing the Directory.

For her help and guidance through our Senior year, we particularly want to thank our sponsor, Miss Helen Davis. Our thanks, too, to Mr. Smith and Mrs. Duncan, who have given so much of their time to the Fourth Form.

The Class of 1957 wishes the Class of 1958 the very best of luck.

The enthusiasm of a firecracker, a quiet mischief under gold red hair, the kindness and tact of a genuine lady, yet the lovable spontaneity of an elf—these are distinguishing marks of Kit. She has had particular interest in her work with LOWER SCHOOL, group supervision, and she has served energetically as a senior cheerleader and as Glee Club treasurer.

Ever losing things, she is yet ever amazed at herself for the loss—to the endearing amusement of her devoted classmates. Kit's brands are individualism and the unexpected. She will be remembered for her continuous generosity of ideas and of service; and she will be missed by each of us who go our different ways—after Hockaday.

For four years Carol has graced the Hockaday campus. In her very sincere way she has succeeded in making a countless number of friends, not only among the students but also the administration. Her artistic abilities have proven to be an invaluable aid to many Hockaday functions. Whenever there was a job to be done Carol very pleasantly and most willingly offered her help, and very often carried the full responsibility.

Carol has succeeded in carrying out two very important jobs: The Art Club, of which she was President her III Form year, and Chairman of Vespers, in which she has done a remarkable job and handled with great ease.

Everyone joins in wishing this Hockadaisy the best that life could give. The College of her choice will certainly gain a wise, considerate, and devoted person.

As President of the Fourth Form Caro has shown her ability as an organizer and as a leader. Never conspicuous, she has always been exactly where she was needed at the right time. Caro's outstanding work at the hospitals in her Third Form year characterizes her unselfishness and her sense of responsibility. Her speech is as unassuming as her actions, but talking with her is always valuable and interesting, either because of her intelligence or because of her delightfully subtle sense of humor.

It is difficult to summarize all the things that Caro represents in a few words, but if any can do it they are these: Caro is a lady.

Linda Ashby, during her two years at Hockaday, has won many friends with her sincerity and friendly manner. The possessor of a truly generous nature, she has given freely of herself and her time, to make the lives of others happier. She has spent many weekends at Hockaday with the boarders, and they have spent many weekends in her home. Fun-loving, Linda has enthusiastically led her class as a cheerleader, and has been an active patron of Tarry House. A true Hockadaisy, we're glad to have been classmates of Linda's, and wish her luck at college.

An enthusiasm for classical music, an interest in and skill at bridge, and a fondness for pizza pie are only a few of the characteristics that Jane's friends and classmates associate with her. Somewhat quiet and retiring, she is one of strong determination and will for accomplishment. This is reflected in her splendid contributions to the Four-cast, the Math Club, and Entre Nous.

Jane has an intuitive understanding of others. She is a loyal friend and spirited companion. She has contributed generously of her time and energies to the welfare and progress of the Fourth Form.

Vitality, wit, and energy are three little words that most aptly describe Linda Bailey. Although Linda has been with us only since early March of last year, she is a vital part of the class and a true Hockaday girl in every sense of the word. She has proved invaluable through her hard work as photography editor of the Annual, and Chairman of Dad's Day. As a friend, Linda is unsurpassed. Her loyalty and ability to be there when a friend is needed are perhaps her finest qualities. Her sparkling wit is just another reason Linda is beloved by her classmates and teachers.

We all know Hockaday will miss Linda next year and "Good Luck to you, Linda" is just our way of saying thanks, and goodbye.

Linda has chosen Texas University as her school for next year.

Barbara is known to all by her gay brown eyes and her ready laughter. She arrived at Hockaday in the III Form and has since made her place in a large group of friends and acquired a reputation of dependability. She excels in all sports but her favorites are softball and volleyball. Being a House Council member and Secretary of the IV Form, Barbara is always ready to help her classmates. Her contributions to her school and her gift for making friends will long be remembered.

Five feet two inches of sincere friendly personality characterizes Penny Brown. Her enthusiasm, generosity, and kindness have won a place in all our hearts.

Penny's work with the Community Service Committee, Vespers, and other school activities has been a definite benefit to Hockaday. While being industrious in her studies, she finds time to take active part in school sports, where her athletic ability is demonstrated.

Because of the spirit of good will and loyalty that Penny has maintained throughout the two years she has been here, she will be greatly missed next year by the school and her classmates.

Sara has spent the majority of her years at Hockaday devoted to ballet. She has contributed her talent, not only to ballet school performances, but also to Glee Club operettas. In spite of the great amount of time given to dancing, her scholarship record has remained outstanding.

Few girls really know Sara, but all are fully aware of her rare qualities as a person. Everyone wishes her success in her chosen field.

Evelyn has been an understanding and sympathetic friend to us all. "Is there anything I can do to help?" you often hear her say, and if it is at all possible, she will do it.

Evelyn has been very generous in offering her home for class parties, and her pool for afternoon swims. Small in stature but gifted with ability, Evelyn aims to be useful to her class at all times, whether in making a suggestion or driving her car. A good bridge player, she is often found adding to the general merriment in Tarry House.

"Evelyna," as some of us teasingly call her, is a generous and gracious person. The Class of 1957 wishes her luck and happiness in the years to come.

With a calm but merry expression in her blue eyes, Carolyn is a lovely friend. A willing helper and a firm leader, her job is always done competently with no complaint. Carolyn sparkles in her tranquility.

Oklahoma, her native State, is her greatest hobby. She can often be found laughing and steadily saying "boo" in the middle of a crowd singing "The Eyes of Texas."

We have loved having Carolyn at Hockaday, and we hate to send her back.

Goodbye, sweet Carolyn, have fun at O.U.

Judy is a lovely little red-head, who is reserved and yet vivacious. Her quiet temperament reveals her fine, aesthetic feelings while her liveliness appears in her eyes and smile and especially in her snort, quick laugh. She isn't the "typical" red-head in that she lacks a "fiery" temper, but she has the red-head spirit. Among Judy's outstanding qualities are her understanding and tenderness. She will always be remembered for her portrayal of the wicked witch in the "Wizard of Oz" and for her delightful questions in fourth period history class. Perhaps the thing that is most characteristic of Judy is the fact that no one has ever heard her say an unkind word about anyone.

A flash of bright blond hair, the roar of a brand new car, a gay greeting, and Loretta has arrived. Always found in the center of any group, Loretta has made numerous friends at Hockaday with her wonderful sense of humor. She is always ready to take part in any activity. Examples of this are her participation in the Senior Play, the Operetta, and her job of publishing the Directories, each of which she has entered into with enthusiasm. Her creative ability and artistic talent have resulted in many beautiful dance decorations, and have led to her election this year as president of the Art Club.

Loretta is indeed very attractive, but there is no doubt that she has a great deal of common sense and more to offer than good looks alone. Hockaday's loss next year will be S.M.U.'s gain.

Friendliness, sincerity, and courtesy certainly describe Peggy Jo's bright personality. Kindness and consideration for others are always apparent toward her teachers and counselors, as well as her classmates. She exemplifies the qualities for which her courtesy stands.

Since her musical talent is abundant, her class and school have benefited from her varied contributions in piano, accordion and flute.

We extend best wishes for the future to this charming little blonde with the warm and friendly smile.

As Treasurer of the class last year and as Editor of the Four-cast this year, Wendy has been an untiring worker in fulfilling her responsibilities. Bright-eyed, cheerful, and always willing to help, Wendy has been capable of any job assigned to her. She enlivens each day by expressing her enthusiasm in impromptu remarks. Greatly interested in art and music, Wendy can be found in her spare moments either practicing the piano or sketching familiar scenes. Her sense of humor and endless questions, combined with intellectual curiosity, have made Wendy an outstanding individual.

Nancy has thumbed her way up through the ranks since the seventh grade. Her quick wit and sparkling personality have endeared her to her class. Often seen wielding a hockey stick, between trips to Tulane University, Nancy excels in many fields of which Math is not one. The Dramatic Club will never be quite the same without this helpful Vice-President. Blest with originality and ingenuity, Nancy can always think of things to do. Her short, sleek hair-do is a distinctive part of her appearance. There's quite a treat in store for S.M.U. when Nancy arrives.

To know Suzy is to like and admire her. Her courtesy, friendliness, and kindness stem from a genuine interest in the well-being and happiness of her friends. In addition to being a good student, she has contributed time, effort, and enthusiasm to almost every phase of school activity, ranging from dramatics to her present position as Editor of the Annual. She has approached this job with the same capability and quiet leadership that made her a successful Third Form President. It is fitting that her achievements were recognized in the awarding of the Courtesy Cap and Hockaday Ring in the Second and Third Forms.

Suzanne is representative of Hockaday and Hockaday girls in every fine sense of the word.

Poise and dignity, topped by a shining blond head, identify the familiar figure of Jo Glassell. Jo entered Hockaday as a Third former and was recognized almost immediately for her versatility and able leadership. Her high sense of values, understanding, and friendliness are sincere innate qualities, sustained through deep faith. We are all anticipating a wonderful future for Jo, and wishing her all the happiness she so well deserves.

All at once an eerie jungle cry pierces the green carpeted halls. It's not Tarzan, girls, just George, alias Jane Haltom. Jane's comedy qualities have provided Hockadaisies with much pleasure for four years. But, below the surface, one finds more valuable qualities than humor in Jane. Her warm friendliness and kindness have been welcomed by all of her schoolmates. She has shouldered her responsibilities as House Council President and member of Student Council with grace, and has commanded the love and respect of all who come in contact with her.

Hockaday will surely miss Jane next year, but it will be glad to let someone else worry with the hourly calls from the K.A. house at S.M.U.

Fran Harvey, a petite red-head from Archer City, Texas is readily recognized for her kind and helpful spirit which has won her many friends at Hockaday. During her two years here, she has been in the Glee Club and the Dramatics Club.

Individualism is one of her outstanding characteristics. Fran is never afraid to express her own opinion, to the delight and despair of her friends, and her lovable sense of humor is continually amusing. Our best wishes go with Fran to Texas University next year.

Nancy is a girl whose vitality and pep are known throughout Hockaday. She is full of spunk, with a portion of devilment. One of her characteristics is to exaggerate everything she says, but one soon learns not to take her too seriously. Nancy's favorite hideout is "Junior," where she is constantly engaged in a bridge game.

A great organizer, Nancy is a capable leader, easily handling more than her share of responsibility. During her three years at Hockaday she has participated in athletics and clubs, lending her services wherever they are needed. We will miss her next year—especially her extended shoulder blades.

Huntleigh, our blond bombshell from Dixie, is quick-witted and quite resourceful. A fiend for bridge and Satchmo, she divides her time between "Jr." and the K. A.'s. At night Kay snores, to the dismay of her roommate; during the day she talks in riddles and giggles at nothing. Kay always has a joke ready, but she can be serious too. Quite handy at dealing out nicknames, she also enjoys being teased herself. Among her many duties Kay is President of "Jr." and of the H.N.A.B. Able to adapt herself to any situation, Kay always appears at ease. Her blond page-boy and red sunglasses will leave a vacancy on the campus that will be difficult to fill.

Jane is well known at Hockaday as the tall, slim girl whose attempts to gain weight are the despair and envy of her dieting classmates. Usually quiet, she is always willing to talk on her favorite subject, music, and has followed up her interest and talent by work in the Glee Club and the Junior Symphony League. Her college plans also concentrate on music study, probably at Oberlin. During the years she has been at Hockaday, in both the Upper and Lower Schools, Jane has made many friends by her sympathy, tact, and willingness to listen, and we know that these qualities will continue to bring her friends wherever she may be.

During the four years Helena has been at Hockaday she has contributed much to our class. Her gay personality and common sense combine to make Helena invaluable when problems come up. She has proved herself very responsible in many jobs including Business Manager of the Four-Cast and managing props at the Operetta.

Helena's first loves are music, in which she has a deep interest, and history. In recognition for her outstanding work in history she was chosen this year to attend a seminar in Washington and New York. She has also taken an active part in sports, especially hockey. Her friendliness and sense of humor make Helena well liked by everyone.

Lovely dark eyes, a friendly smile and a soft-spoken graciousness are a few of the wonderful qualities which have distinguished Effie in her class. Coming from her homeland, Greece, she has truly made the most of her year at Hockaday as an exchange student. She is always willing to help others and eager to participate in every phase of service to her school. Effie has greatly enriched understanding of life in her country, and has gained many friendships by sharing mutual interests and goals. She is truly a good will ambassador.

This attractive blue-eyed blond entered Hockaday in 1955, for her Third Form year. She comes from Tyler, Texas, and is well known among the Hockadaisies as "Trish" or "Tricia."

She is a very capable and responsible girl, as was seen by her work on the swimming team, as Secretary of the First House, and as cheerleader for the Green Team.

We will miss Patricia next year, but we know that she will be happy at college, where she will continue to win many close friends.

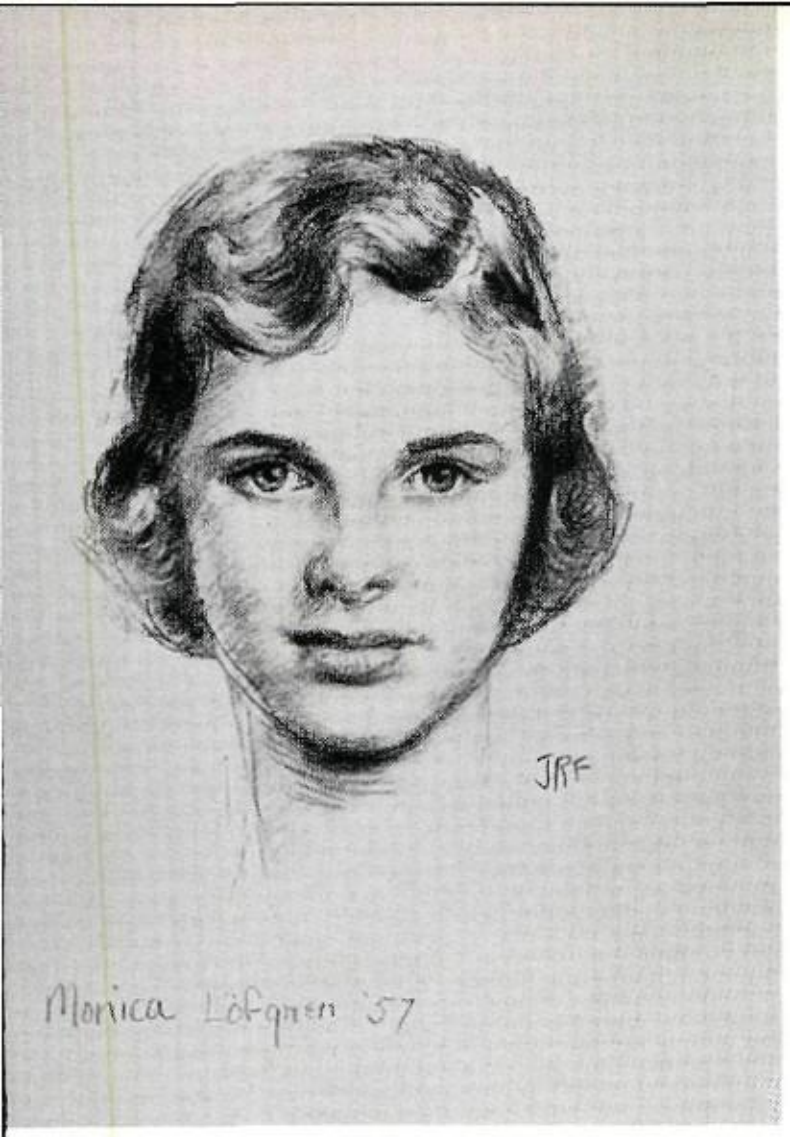
Once a respected resident of the Indian Reservation in Oklahoma, Oteka now lives at Hockaday. For three years she has been active here in athletics, class projects, and in the dining room. Oteka is known as the giggliest girl on The Row, and is; she is a congenial character, always up to something devilish, particularly in the library, where she can be found gleefully laughing away her valuable hours for concentrated study.

But at times Oteka can be serious, as she is in chapel (chapel lasts for five minutes daily.) The rest of the time she is an energetic, good-natured person, one who is loved and admired at Hockaday.



"From Sweden?" one might say, "Is Monica from Sweden?" True, it's hard to believe, for Monica Lofgren, although having been in the United States only since September, has truly become an American teenager, even to the point of losing her British accent. As a cheerleader, member of the Glee Club and Art Club she has certainly added to life at Hockaday. She is quick to smile, quick to say "excuse me," and quicker to tell you about Sweden. The Scurrys, with whom she is living, have certainly enjoyed her, as she also seems to enjoy Texas life (especially the food.)

Best known for her skill and enthusiasm in athletics, Pat was appropriately elected Captain of the Green Team. She has shown herself to be a hard and conscientious worker—always striving to lead her team to victory. She excells in tennis and has many times helped Hockaday and the Green Team by her ability to "handle" the racket.

That much needed and outstanding quality of good sportsmanship certainly characterizes her. Pat is a favorite of all. Her main interests, besides athletics, vary from music to drawing or to just plain talking. She is friendly and has an ever existing sense of humor. From this come her modest remarks which are witty and most entertaining. Because of these qualities, Pat will always have an abundance of friends.

Dark hair and mischievous green eyes . . . quiet and unassuming beauty . . . enthusiastic student of French and President of Entre Nous, who dreams of strolling down Les Champs Elysees . . .

A lilting voice eagerly taking part in Glee Club . . . a passion for beautiful records, which are placed in a cherished Hi-Fi collection . . . school spirit which shines as cheers are led at Varsity games . . . a never tiring "Sol" player . . . contagious laughter and many friends.

These qualities are Dagma's. We're so glad she came to Hockaday.

Spirit, inner strength and bubbling personality are only a few of the characteristics of Sallie McCutcheon. Her amazing athletic ability and leadership have been recognized by her classmates and faculty during her five years at Hockaday, and have resulted naturally in her election this year as White Team Captain. Needless to say, Sallie will be missed very much next year. Good luck, Sallie, and a word of warning to Mrs. Batterson from the Class of 1957: "Beware of this up and coming P. E. teacher!"

If you see a girl walking down the hall with perfect posture and a smile on her face, you know it's Anne McLean. Anne hails from the fair city of Fort Worth—and she's proud of it! In her four years at Hockaday she has excelled in practically everything she has participated in. Her excellent work in Tu Tertulia and her great athletic ability will long be remembered—and envied.

To some, she's known as "Annie Brown," "Clainie," or "Mac," but to everyone who knows her she has proven herself a loyal friend and hard worker. We shall truly miss her glowing face next year, but Hockaday's loss will certainly be Hollin's gain.

"Maloney" alias Nancy Malone—She is five feet six inches tall, has light brown hair and brown eyes—Her hide-out is in the Valley not far from Weslaco—Characteristics are: 1) cute giggle, 2) cheerful smile, 3) makes friends easily, 4) is never sad, 5) doesn't worry, and 6) she runs the Athletic Board of the Hockaday School smoothly—

P.S.—"Maloney" is a girl Hockaday is proud of and will boast about for many years to come.

A friendly and tactful red-head from Beaumont, Kathryn is well known around the school for her liveliness and good humor, also for her dramatic talents.

Singing and acting fill Kathryn's life. Ever since she came to Hockaday, in her second form year, she has contributed her talents to many school plays, especially to the Senior Play and the Operetta. Congratulations, Kathryn, on your fine performance in both.

Equally important to Kathryn are good shows, interesting books, ballet, and classical music. With her varied interests, friendliness, and easiness in getting along with people, Kathryn will be very much liked everywhere.

Very seldom is a class blessed with such a sincere and conscientious person as Mimi Mason. We at Hockaday feel deeply grateful that we have been able to know her and be her friends. Sharing respect and love for Mimi, we find each day brighter after seeing her pleasant, cheerful face.

Confidence in the work of our Student Council has been strengthened with Mimi as the dependable president of the organization. She instills in every member of the Student Body a sense of responsibility and a faith in the work being done.

Mimi radiates the highest quality of friendship. Always ready to take upon herself the problems of another or to rejoice in another's happiness, she becomes the trustworthy and devoted friend we all seek. Her often blushing face reveals her modesty and unselfishness.

All these qualities she possesses abundantly and they make up the finest personality possessing spiritual beauty and intellectual skill.

Jane, whose name is synonymous with good times, constant generosity, and true loyalty to friends, has diligently adorned the Hockaday campus for nine years.

Her enduring enthusiasm has led her to many activities, in school and out, and will be a part of what her friends remember. Serving as a member of the Judicial Committee, she has contributed to student government. As President of the Dramatics Club she has made this year's club one of the best and most interesting. She is responsible for numerous advancements in the club's program and purpose.

Jane plans to attend Finch College in New York City, where we hope she will have the time of her life; also we hope she won't become a yankee and forget her friends in Texas. (It is certain we won't forget her!)

Full of life, comical antics, and an uproarious sense of humor, Jane has entertained us all in a grand manner. She lacks little being called "the hostess with the mostess," and one loved by all.

A rare and wonderful treat is to know Jane.

Throughout the past eight years that Sally Jo has attended Hockaday, she has proved herself an asset to the class of 1957. She is a sincere and faithful friend.

"S.J." is a very versatile gal. Her interests include Colorado, where she hopes to go to school, records, cooking, and Tina Katrina, her dog. She shows her love for the outdoors by consistently appearing at the athletic practices and by riding horses every summer in the mountains of Colorado. She is never lacking for conversation and her subtle wit comes into play often.

A desire to like everyone has made Sally Jo more than pleasant to know.

During two years at Hockaday, Sally has established a reputation for being a dependable worker with enthusiasm for her work as a member of the House Council. She has a quiet and unassuming personality, but she is known for her witty observations at unexpected moments.

Here at Hockaday "O'Brien" has been especially interested in the activities of the non-athletic board.

A pleasant and agreeable person to know, Sallie has made these two years very enjoyable for all.

Beauty, brains, and wit are qualities for which Pat is well known. Her gay conversation and fun-loving personality have added greatly to the Fourth Form. In her seven years at Hockaday, she has also distinguished herself with many scholastic honors such as Cum Laude and position as High Priestess at the Roman Banquet.

This year, Pat has displayed capable leadership in her jobs as Business Manager of the Annual, stage manager of the Operetta, and Pontifex Maxima of the Dux Femina Facti. The class will miss Pat next year, but she will make a worthy asset to any college.

"Mari" as she likes to be called, is best characterized by her "you-all" which can be heard at any time and in many different ways. Usually her expression is most enthusiastic when she has made a grand slam in bridge or when cheering the White Team in one of the games. She is a loyal supporter of the Team and can always be found at all the games promoting the Team's pep.

During these three years she has excelled in dramatics. This year, she performed her part in the IV Form play exceptionally well.

Her warm personality and genuine sincerity, as well as her constant enthusiasm, will be a true asset when she returns home to Austin to attend Texas University.

If you ever hear anyone call out, "Hey Sal, Polkville, Polk, or just plain Sally," who else could it be but Sally Polk?

Since Sally came to Hockaday during her sophomore year, she has been a great asset to her class and a real friend to every Hockadaisy. Sally, alias "the Jap" will always be remembered for her general enthusiasm, her loyalty to Oklahoma, and her unusual coinage of words. As Fourth Form representative to the White Team, Polk is known as a morale builder and a girl who really puts her heart and spirit into her work.

Polk's sense of humor and understanding are a part of her sparkling personality, and Oklahoma University will definitely gain a wonderful girl next year.

From Peru comes that IV Former who always seems to have a mischievous twinkle in her eyes, and signs her letters "dirt from Myrt." Yes, Myrtie Rawlins, a Hockaday girl who is in everything from Glee Club to making "appropriate" remarks from her post in the hockey cage. Myrt the owl, through her humorous pranks, flightly giggle, and innocent sarcasm, has become a favorite indeed on and off the campus. She is one who may be confided in, will be sure to understand a problem, and will help you solve it. She's a loyal friend, a perky girl, and our mischievous Myrt.

One of the most well-rounded gals at Hockaday is Marietta, better known as "the Scurry." As chairman of the Community Service Committee, having worked with the Red Cross and on her main project, the Charity Carnival, she is both energetic and enthusiastic worker, and a friendly outgoing person. She can always be seen somewhere on the campus rushing from one place to another, busy on one of her many projects. But no matter how much she rushes she always manages to be late.

Over a period of four years she has accumulated an amazing variety of combs, pencils, and pens from her desk mates, her teachers, and even worse, from her best friends. On the other hand, she is a very remarkable person with ingenious and original ideas. Marietta enters into everything eagerly, as was shown by her hilarious portrayal of the Scarecrow in the WIZARD OF OZ. She is a scholar in Latin, an athlete excelling in hockey, tennis and volleyball, and an industrious leader of her class. While participating in all these activities she has consistantly maintained her "A" average. Marietta is indeed a character, yet one who has a warm, generous, lovable personality. She has good common sense, and is above all a sincere and humble person.

A congenial, altruistic person, twinkling bright-eyed Susan Sibbitt is indeed popular at Hockaday. Her charm, her wit, and her effervescent personality have won her many friends. Susan takes part in all kinds of school activities, but she makes art her specialty. Besides her interest in her school work and art, she always has time for dating, partying, and swimming.

Susan is a genuine Hockadaisy engaging honestly and sincerely in everything she does.

A blond bundle of energy arrived at Hockaday two years ago, and she has made things livelier ever since. Although at first impression she seems rather quiet and shy, one soon realizes what a wonderful sense of humor she has. Bubbling with spirit, she has enthusiastically led cheers for the Green Team this year.

A good student, Mary Jo finds time for extracurricular activities, such as the Dramatic Club and the Senior Play. Fun, friends, and success will come naturally to Mary Jo wherever she goes.

Susan, fondly dubbed Ghoul, is a slender brunette of unique beauty from Amarillo, Texas. Her graceful dancing has won her fame and honor in "Jr." Susan, even though she is quite reserved, is always well informed, and stimulates any conversation. Through her intellectual curiosity she has achieved a high level of scholarship.

A valuable member of her class because of these qualities and many more, she will, we know, be just as valuable to her class next year and the years following.

For the last four years, the bright face of Gen Vaughan has been seen around the Hockaday campus glowing with enthusiasm. One of her most outstanding features is her voice of which she makes good use. Although interested in almost everything, Gen has a special interest in her Arabian mare, Jasmine.

Her dependability has been proven through her excellent leadership as Chairman of the School Service Committee and a member of the Student Council. In the Senior Play, she showed her dramatic talents portraying Nelly Fell. The Third Grade of Lower School will always remember her exciting and captivating stories. Full of energy and with an eagerness to help everyone, Gen has made quite a place for herself among her friends.

Pixie has been at Hockaday for two years. She is a noble supporter of O.U. and plans to make it her stomping ground next year. Her first year here Pixie was very active on the Four-cast staff, and did a very good job. Now Pixie is one of the many bridge players of the senior class and a collector of records, which all enjoy listening to in Junior.

Good luck to you, Pix—wherever you go.

THIRD FORM OFFICERS—Seated: Ellengene Hodges, Mary Jon Lewis, Nancy Howell, Sally Morris, Sally Norris. Standing: Helene Neild, Mr. Merritt.

Third Form

The Third Form has prepared itself well for the role its members will assume next year as seniors. One of the Third form's most rewarding class projects this year was going to the Texas Crippled Children's Hospital every Saturday and entertaining the children. During the Christmas season a party was given for them. Keeping study hall and the corridor, their project on the school campus, gave them a feeling of responsibility.

With the aid of their sponsor, Mr. Merritt, the Third Form gave an informal dance, "The Soda Pop Hop" in January, and an informal dance in April; and took part in the Charity Carnival at the beginning of the year. Being the largest class in school, their spirit and unity are amazing.

Second Form

The Second Form has had many achievements this year, through their teamwork and class spirit, and through the guidance of their class sponsors, Miss LaVerne Walker and Mr. W. K. McNabb.

Among the class projects of the year were giving an orphan's party in Tarry House, collecting absentee slips, taking care of the trophy case, and marking the athletic field. By giving chapels in Lower School once a week, they worked to strengthen the relationship between Upper and Lower School. Weekly auctions of lost and found articles provided funds for their social activities. The Second Form Speech Choir presented original programs for chapels and Dad's Day. An outstanding achievement of the Form was placing first among the classes in scholastic averages at mid-term.

First Form

Profiting by the help of the class sponsor, Miss Dyer, the First Form achieved a fine sense of class unity. Much interest and enthusiasm were shown in their projects, consisting of taking care of the physical education equipment, keeping the library books in order, bringing magazines for the infirmary, selling apples, and bringing flowers for the study hall and the offices.

During the course of the year there were several Senior-Freshman days. On these days the First Form served the Fourth Form in any way the Fourth Form requested.

The Student Council

The Student Council, elected by the student body in the spring of 1956 to serve during the following year, is the student governing organization of Hockaday. Its membership is composed of a president, secretary, treasurer, the presidents of the First, Second, Third, and Fourth Forms, the presidents of the House Council and the Athletic Board, and the chairmen of the Service Committees.

President
MIMI MASON

This year, through the cooperation of the faculty and administration, the student government has been able to assume greater responsibilities. These are three-fold: to provide an official channel through which the students may make known their ideas and opinions on matters pertaining to school life; to stimulate a genuine interest in, and loyalty to, Hockaday and school activities; and to make every girl aware of her position in the community by familiarizing her with the principles of self-government.

House Council

The House Council, sponsored by Miss Elizabeth B. Milton, consists of the presidents from each house and hall of the residence department. As problems arise, the council tries to promote harmony and understanding among the resident students.

The Hockaday Boarders' Pins are won by girls who are outstanding in the qualities of service, friendship, and loyalty, besides being good housekeepers.

Chairman
GEN VAUGHAN

The purpose of The School Service Committee is to encourage girls to assume the responsibility of improving Hockaday and to promote better relationship with other schools. The Committee is composed of fifteen members, three selected from each form and three officers.

Some of its main functions during the year have been the establishment of a diet table at the evening meal, a clean-up campaign, and a tuberculous examination for the student body and faculty. Members have acted as hostesses for athletic games and have helped in planning parties and luncheons with other schools, including a reciprocal chapel program. The Committee has also learned to operate the movie projectors so that films could be shown when the faculty members need them.

MARIETTA SCURRY

The Community Service Committee is a sub-committee of the Student Council. Its program, trying to make the Hockaday girl more aware of the needs of others, consists of sponsoring charitable workshops, such as production parties, and donating money to different local, national, and world charities and organizations. The Committee is composed of members equally representing the four Forms, and during the planning of the Charity Carnival the Lower School is represented.

The main project of the year is the Charity Carnival, held in October. The proceeds of the Charity Carnival are used throughout the year to help such organizations as the Community Chest, the Hungarian Relief Fund, and the Red Cross. In December, the Committee sponsors the Christmas gift program for the Marlowe School, and, in February, the Junior Red Cross and the Service Pin Program.

The Dux Femina Facti, founded in 1939, is the Latin Honor Society whose membership is open to those girls in the Latin department making honor roll grades. The meetings of the Dux are planned to explain and illustrate Roman customs, ideals, and traditions. The highlight of the year is the Roman Banquet, this year on May fourth. It is carried out in true Roman style, complete with slaves and sacrificial offerings to Minerva. This Banquet was a special one, because it marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Roman Banquet.

Each year, the Latin society gives three awards: a key to all Latin students who have been a member for one and a half years, a palm branch to all the Virgilian students who have attended four Banquets, and the Virgilian Medal to the girl who has made the highest grade in Virgil.

Entre Nous, the French Honor Society, is open to any girl who has completed a semester's work with honor grades, and all third-year French students. The purpose of this club is to stimulate further interest in anything pertaining to France or the French people.

Entre Nous participated in the Charity Carnival by turning Tarry House into a replica of the original Moulin Rouge night club. Adding to the French atmosphere, Mr. Abel sang several French songs.

Initiation of new members was held in February. Initiates were required to know French history and grammar, the first stanza of La Marseillaise, and to submit an original eight-line poem about an initiated member. The new members were welcomed into the club at a French dinner at La Vieille Varsovie restaurant.

Tu Tertulia, the Spanish Honor Society, is open to all Spanish students with an average of B or above. All third and fourth year students and girls from Spanish-speaking countries are honorary members. The purpose of the club is to acquaint its members with the customs and culture of Spanish countries, and to improve the fluency of its members by outside practice.

The activities begin with the initiation in the fall. The traditional Posadas of Christmas are presented on the terrace, followed by a party gvien in Tarry House where Pinatas are broken and Spanish Christmas carols are sung. In the spring a Spanish play is given by the Club. The meetings are held on Sunday afternoons at Mexican restaurants, and sometimes Spanish films are shown.

Vicious Circle

The Vicious Circle is the organization composed of students who have an interest in mathematics. Its purpose is to encourage an acquaintance with mathematics and various related fields. This is done through the programs at its monthly meetings. The Vicious Circle's most important project is the annual Mathematics Tournament, in which Dallas and other Southwestern schools participate. After the tournament a luncheon is given at Tarry House for participants and sponsors and the winner is awarded a trophy.

The Inner Circle, the honorary organization within the Vicious Circle, recognizes honor students and stimulates an interest in the Vicious Circle. Its members are those girls belonging to the Vicious Circle and maintaining an "A" or "B" average in mathematics.

This is the Math Honor Club open to any member of the Vicious Circle who has honor grades in Mathematics. The members are: Sara Alexander, Barbara Andrau, Jane Austin, Judy Austin, Sara Bartholomew, Deborah Beaird, Sidney Bohanna, Julie Boren, Mary Lou Bowser, Bettie Burton, Cookie Chilton, Cecelia Conway, Carolyn Cox, Carol Craig, Catherine Crump, Margaret Cullum, Neall Grinnan, Amanda Hamilton, Gene Hodges, Nancy Hughston, Kay Hunter, Helena Jackson, Sallie Jackson, Tina Joers, Mary Jane LeVan, Winkie Lott, Kay Light, Jeannie Mayfield, Polly Lou McAdams, Susie McCrum, Merle Meadors, Carol Moore, Gail Morris, Marilyn Munger, Peggy Nathan, Sally Morris, Mary Paulson, Susan Cook, Margy Paulson, Sally Price, Martha Ramage, Betty Reagor, Janne Ritter, Ann Rubenstein, Alice Shelburne, Peggy Simmons, Faith Starnes, Allison Stemmons, Cindy Tally, Alison Taylor, Charlotte Temple, Barbara Wertz, Linda Wilkins, Jane Woodward, Susan Woodward, Peppy Wright, Judy Williams.

The Hockaday Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Thomas Merriman and the accompaniment of Mrs. Bruce Dougherty, is composed of seventy-three girls, representing the four Forms.

The Glee Club concentrated its fall season on the annual Charity Carnival Musical Variety Show, this year combining Blues, Jazz, Latin-American, and Gypsy themes. During the winter season, the Club gave Christmas programs for the Salesmanship Club and the College Registrars Association. The annual Christmas Vespers services given at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church culminated the activities of the season. This program was highlighted by a first performance of a new Christmas Cantata by Samuel Adler.

For the spring operetta the Glee Club presented "The Red Mill" by Victor Herbert. The staging and choreography were under the direction of Vin Lindde and Buster Cooper, respectively. The Spring Music Festival, given during Commencement Week, was the final presentation of the year.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club is composed of thirty girls who have earned their membership through tryouts and sincere interest in the theatre; they win their pins by participating in play productions. The aim of the club is three-fold: the development of appreciation of the drama as a distinct division of literature, the actual production of plays, and the development of individual poise and ability.

After the business session of each weekly meeting, there is a planned program emphasizing some phase of the theatre, such as illustrated reports on technical aspects of the theatre, the presentation of cuttings from outstanding plays, dramatic monologues, and one-act plays. The club may also have a guest speaker as part of the program. Among the activities of the club are giving numerous one-act plays for Friday nights, attending the local professional Theatre '57, and presenting a minstrel show for the Charity Carnival. At the end of the year, the girl who has done the most outstanding work in dramatics is selected by the club to receive the Dramatics Club award cup on Honors Day.

Honors

Courtesy Cap

The Courtesy Cap is one of the highest and most cherished honors given at Hockaday. It is given twice during the school year, in the fall and in the spring. All girls in all forms are eligible for the Cap. It is awarded by the Student Council and faculty on the basis of courtesy, which is the sincere respect for and politeness towards others, of service, which is the act of obedience, good works, and love for others, and of loyalty, which is genuine and constant support of the School's standards and activities. The green and white cap has been a tradition for over ten years and is worn every Friday by those girls who have proved themselves worthy of this coveted honor.

Ring Day

THIRD FORM RING DAY AWARDEES, 1957

Standing: Julie Goldberg, Lucia Nettle, Jane Woodward, Sue Williams.
Seated: Mary Jane LeVan, Jeannie Goodrich, Nancy Howell.

The Hockaday Ring, presented each fall to the Fourth Form and ten percent of the Third Form, is the most coveted of Hockaday awards. The Ring, a designation of achievement, forms a common bond of understanding and friendship among all its wearers.

The Ring is awarded on the basis of achievement in character and citizenship, and since all Fourth Formers must have met these standards, they are all accorded the privilege of wearing it. As a special honor, ten percent of the Third Formers, selected by the Faculty, also wear the Ring.

The Ring, jade in a gold setting, is a symbol of the standards which Hockaday strives to instill in each of its students.

Seated: Sara Bush, Mimi Mason, Caro Alexander. Standing: Patricia Patterson, Marietta Scurry.

Cum Laude

Membership in the Cum Laude Society has been the highest academic award since the Ela Hockaday Chapter was formed in 1945. Twice each year, in December and in May, the members of the Fourth Form who have maintained honor roll grades during their four years of Upper School and stand in the first tenth of the class are eligible for initiation into the society.

At the installation service held in the study hall on December 5, 1956, the Secretary of the Chapter set forth the object of the Society and explained the motto, the President's charge was given, and each initiate received her certificate and emblem. The speaker for Cum Laude Day was Dr. Umphrey Lee, President Emeritus of Southern Methodist University.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, an international honor society for high school journalists, is open to members of the Annual and the Four-Cast staff making honor roll grades. Each girl must submit an original piece of creative writing which has been published. Furthermore, she must be recommended by her club sponsor.

Athletics

First row: Sallie McCutcheon, Sally Polk, Nancy Malone, Anne McLean, Pat Lubben. Second row: Marilyn Munger, Sandra Good, Lyda Hill, Mrs. Batterson, Ceci Conway, Sandra Smith, Barbara Andrau.

Athletic Board

The Athletic Board is the governing body of the Athletic Association of which each girl of the school is a member. It is composed of a President, the Green and White teams' Captains, and the Green and White team representatives from each Form. These girls control anything pertaining to athletics, such as, planning and scheduling games at school, arranging intramural competition, and choosing the Form teams for all games throughout the year.

The athletic program is designed to encourage interest and participation in sports, and to ultimately promote sportsmanship and loyalty. By providing for three kinds of competition, each girl can participate in some way. There are games between the Forms and between the Green and White teams; the varsity teams enable a girl to develop her skills more highly by competing with girls from other schools.

At the end of the year, five awards are given by the Athletic Board at the Honors Assembly. The Athletic Shield is given to those girls who were on four out of five Form teams and three out of five Green or White teams. To those girls who were on any of the varsity teams, a varsity "H" is awarded. A banner is presented to the winner of the most Green and White games; the Fondren Award is won by the girl who has shown the best attitude toward athletics; and the Form Athletic Cup is given to the winner of the most Form games.

The greatest accomplishment of the Athletic Board this year is the instigation of the new Hockaday Athletics Board Cup, which is given to the Form which has shown the best enthusiasm, sportsmanship, and participation in sports.

MARJORIE BURNS

MRS. JANET FAUNCE

The Annual Staff of 1957 wishes to express its appreciation to Mr. Borris for his portraits, color shot, and action shots. We are especially grateful to him for his impromptu trips to the school to take pictures.

We thank Miss Burns for her constant assistance, and Mrs. Faunce for the lovely charcoal sketches. Our thanks also go to Mr. Abel, our Annual Sponsor.
